

U and the Y

By A. Wiseman

Your reporter just returned from a visit to the camp at Little Green Valley and as a result of this visit I wish I were a kid again more than ever. The boys were having a great time hiking, swimming, camping out, etc. I was also able to attend one of their campfire meetings they have each night and boy!—it sure was fun. To start the program all the boys joined in a song which was followed by each cabin group putting on a little skit or play and believe me, there is certainly a lot of natural talent in our Torrance boys.

The campers will have returned by the time this edition is out and no doubt many evenings will be spent in telling "Mom and Dad" of camp experiences.

No doubt the boys have spent many hours since they have returned in telling "mom and dad" of camp experiences.

The one day trip scheduled for tomorrow leaves the YMCA at 10 a.m., in a Torrance Municipal, Chartered bus. A big day is in store for those attending the trained animal show, picnic, fellowship and swim. Only a few reservations left, better call now. 12 softball games every Monday afternoon at 4:30 at Fern Avenue playground. Sign up with Bud or Van.

Interest is building up for an overnight trip to San Diego. Arrangements will be made soon, so watch for the date. (For boys 10 years and older only.)

Girl Scouts 'Out of Gas' Victims on Island Cruise

A "perfect" week spent on Catalina Island by 43 Girl Scouts from the Torrance area, had a perfect climax as they were being chugged back to the mainland in a water taxi Saturday. They ran out of gas!

As the girls chattered in gay excitement over the prospect of being "lost at sea," taxi operators calmly called for aid. The girls reached the San Pedro landing two hours late, at 3 p.m.

Not nearly as exciting, but just as much fun was the seven days spent on the island. The girls, who represented troops from Gardena, Waverly and Sea-

Tennessee Couple Pop 'Dream Home' Bubble of Millers

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller, 1217 Cota avenue, former owner of the M. and M. Transfer Company, know what it feels like to have a dream sold out from under them.

The Millers recently completed their "dream home" at 1532 Post avenue. Along came Mr. and Mrs. N. Kronquest, a newlywed couple from Tennessee and more recently from Long Beach, leaning on the arm of a real estate saleslady.

Result was that Francis Burton, of the Burton Real Estate concern sold the Kronquests the Miller's home before they ever had a chance to sleep in their "dream home."
